"A supper,—all that there is of the best, for say, a party of twenty. Do all you can in fifteen minutes. You can give us those little green oysters and plenty of them. For champagne, G. H. Mumm's, but I'll leave the details to you and my friend, Mr. Jermyn." From "The World, the Flesh and the Devil."

EXHIBITION VISITORS DON'T WORRY ABOUT THE NORTH POLE.

You would not, we feel sure, change your present position watching the flight of the Air Ship, the winning ponies and the hundred and one sights of Victoria Fair to be perched a la Cook or Peary on a slippery ice-floe with your tootsie-wootsies overhanging the edge of creation. There is more solid enjoyment witnessing a good horse race than chasing polar bears with a contingent of Eskimos in that cold storage climate. It's not a swappable occupation compared with your present Fair surroundings and still brighter prospect of a cosy, little supper afterwards at your hotel or restaurant accompanied, of course, by G. H. Mumm & Co.'s "Selected Brut or "Extra Dry."

All our discerning visitors know that "Mumm" is the word when they want the best champagne. G. H. Mumm's Champagnes are listed at every hotel, bar, cafe and club in the city.

ARCTIC MEN ARE WELCOMED

Dr. Cook Mobbed by Brooklyn People on His Arrival at His Home

CROWD AT SYDNEY RECEIVES PEARY

Both Explorers Repeat Statement in Regard to Pole Discovery

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—"I have come from the Pole. I have brought my story and my data with me. I have not come home to enter into arguments with one man or with fifty men, but I am here to present a clear record of a clean piece of work, over which I have a right to display a certain amount of pride.

"I am perfectly willing to abide by the final verdict on this record of competent judges. That must be the last word, and that alone can satisfy me and the public. Furthermore, not only will my report be before you in black and white, but I will also bring to America human witnesses to prove that I have been to the pole.

"Such is the sum and substance of the first message Dr. Frederick A. Cook brought home in person today, answering his critics the world over, under seas and over land. It traveled forth as fast as electricity could carry it to where another Robert E. Peary, homewardbound from the pole, was pacing the deck with his hand to his eyes for a sight of his wife and children.

Dr. Cook's wife and children went out on a tug to meet him at quarantine. From the tug they were transferred to the excursion steamer Grand Republic and brought to land. As he stepped ashore it was noticeable that no representative of the nation, the state or the city was there to greet him. Burde G. B. Burdett, president of the borough of Brooklyn, had welcomed him on the Grand Republic for that borough, but the city of New York sent no official representative. But sincere and enthusiastic to the point of tumultuousness, the welcome may best be described as a neighborly affair, devoid of official significance.

Brooklyn's reception of Dr. Cook had all the elements of a riot except violence. From the moment the Grand Republic warped up to her landing and the explorer, flanked by militiamen and police, fought his way into the automobile, until he left the Bushwick club tonight for the Waldorf Astoria in New York, the surging crowds taxed the capacity of the police and more than once got out of control.

Along the five miles of avenues through which the explorer passed, the mounted police were continually flailing a way for Dr. Cook's automobile, when they were not stemming the massed thousands who seemed to have only one object, to break loose and embrace Dr. Cook. As the Grand Republic steamed up to her dock, the whistle of every craft was tied down, and a din that drowned out the brass bands had a run of full five minutes. The crowd was hustled off the ship and Dr. Cook, surrounded by eight militiamen from the thirty-seventh regiment, came up the gangway. The police threw a cordon around the party and pushed them through to the automobile in which Mrs. Cook and the children were waiting.

Mr. Bradley, Dr. Cook's backer, who had taken affairs in hand, said Dr. Cook would grant the reporters just three minutes.

"What reply have you to make to Commander Peary's assertion that you did not reach the pole?" was the first question.

"None whatever. I will have nothing whatever to say about Commander Peary until he returns to New York and is here to defend himself," Dr. Cook answered in a decisive tone.

"Is it true that Peary or Peary's men took your supplies or provisions at Etah?"

"That I must decline to answer for the same reason," he replied.

"Affidavits from your man, Franke make charges to that effect," the doctor was told.

"I don't know what Franke has said," he replied, "but any statements he has made are undoubtedly true."

"What did you tell Harry Whitney?"

"I told him all about the pole."

"Did you give Whitney anything to bring back to America?"

"Yes, I gave him instruments, a sextant, a compass and an artificial horizon. But Whitney will be here soon to tell his own story. I don't ask him to tell mine."

"Is the pole any different from any other part of the earth?"

"O, no, only its astronomical abbreviations and the fact that it's a cold place when you get there."

This brought the interview to an end.

SYDNEY, Sept. 21.—When asked if he had any comment to make on the statement of Wm. Pritchard, the cabin boy on board the Roosevelt, that Dr. Cook had told him he had reached the North Pole, Commander Peary replied: "I have nothing to say on that subject at this time."

"What about the story that the two Eskimos who went north with Cook admitted to you that they were never out of sight of land?" Commander Peary was asked. "In my first message," Peary replied, "I stated that the two Eskimos who went with Cook declared that he was never out of sight of land, and that I reaffirm and stand by."

The Roosevelt was saluted with whistles and cheering crowds as she came direct to the ferry wharf, where two thousand school children had been assembled. Each waved an American flag the moment the explorer stepped ashore. A delegation of ten school girls dressed in white then went forward, and Miss Naomi Kehl, daughter of the United States consul, recited a

Reports Indicate Loss of Life in Wreck Along Coast of Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS LOSS WILL BE EXTENSIVE

Two Persons Killed by Falling Walls in Jackson, Mississippi

MOBILE, Sept. 21.—Central last night in Mississippi, and sweeping north at the rate of 200 miles a day, the hurricane which devastated the Gulf coast and which left a trail of wreck and ruin through four states, continued on its course with unabated fury. Of the ruin that it has wrought no one can estimate. In New Orleans alone five are known to be dead, and a million dollars will not repair the damage done to the beautiful Crescent City. It is said that plate glass alone will cost $100,000 to replace. The capitol of the state is cut off from the coast points. The dome of the new capitol at Jackson was wrecked and the old capitol unroofed. The streets were a tangle of live wires and the fallen trees and debris made the highways impassable. At Vicksburg two vessels were sunk and a third was driven ashore. Their passengers were rescued. Property damage in Mobile and vicinity will not be large. While many houses have been unroofed, no loss of life has been reported. The tracks of most of the railroads to New Orleans from here are under several feet of water.

TWO CARDINALS FROM CANADA

Reported Announcement From Rome—Message to King Edward

QUEBEC, Sept. 21.—Le Soleil says it has received word from Rome that at the consistory at Rome in January, Mgr. Falconio, papal legate to the United States, Mgr. Sbarretti, papal delegate to Canada, and a Quebec prelate will be made cardinals.

At the lieutenant-governor's luncheon to the delegates to the Catholic plenary council today, Sir A. W. Pelletier read the following message to the King and his majesty's reply:

"To His Majesty King Edward VII, London.—The apostolic delegate and the Catholic Archbishops and Bishops of Canada in plenary council assembled in the city of Quebec, desire to convey to your majesty the expression of their loyalty and that of all your other Catholic subjects in this Dominion, as well as their grateful appreciation of the religious and civil liberty which they enjoy under your gracious rule. All pray that your reign may be long and peaceful. (Signed) Mgr. Sbarretti, Apostolic Delegate."

Reply from His Majesty King Edward VII.—"Mgr. Sbarretti, Apostolic Delegate, Quebec. I thank you excellently and the archbishops and bishops associated with you for your telegram of loyalty, which is in accord with all the best traditions of the church of which you are the hierarchy and of the Dominion where you are essentially and constantly desiring that religious and civil liberty should always be enjoyed by my subjects in all parts of the empire. (Signed) Edward R. and L."

CANADA'S TRADE IS DESIRABLE

Mr. Chaplin Argues That Slight Preference Should Have Been Granted

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Right Hon. Henry Chaplin, a former president of the board of agriculture and a member of the tariff commission in 1904, speaking today at Southbridge, said at present Canada required annually to purchase goods to the amount of fifty millions sterling, and if this country had conceded her a slight preference, as she asked, the whole of that market would have been placed at the disposal of the workers of England, because duties would have been imposed upon other countries which would have prevented their interfering.

"That offer was made by Canada some years ago, of which with the greatest folly and unwisdom we failed to avail ourselves at the time." Other nations, he declared, were now in competition with this country for similar favors from Canada.

REPORT DENIED

LONDON, Sept. 21.—A special despatch received from Khiev, Russia, says that Anti-Jewish rioting broke out in that city today, and as a result twenty persons have been killed and several hundred injured, many of the latter fatally.

NEW ESKIMO TRIBE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—On board the whaler Jennette, which arrived in this port yesterday, heavily laden with furs, blubber and tales of the frozen north, was W. J. Bower, an Arctic explorer, who reports the discovery of a new tribe of people never before seen by a white man. The new tribe of Eskimos, according to Bower, live on a point of Prince Albert Land. The newly discovered natives, who call themselves Nuacacotics, are tall and look like the North American Indians. The explorer was cordially welcomed by the strange tribesmen, and he procured many rich furs from them. On this trip Bower lost one eye through the bite of a spider.

DEATH COMES TO GOVERNOR

John A. Johnson Passes Away After Brave Fight With Illness

ROCHESTER, Minn., Sept. 21.—Governor John A. Johnson died here this morning at 3:25, after a long struggle with illness.

Governor Johnson was in a lethargic state during the greater part of the night, but occasionally was aroused, especially after coughing, and would then murmur a few words to Mrs. Johnson. At times he seemed to wish that the end might come, for on one occasion he said: "My, the time drags slowly; I am so uncomfortable."

The governor lapsed into unconsciousness at 1 o'clock. Toward the end he revived, and raised himself several times to pat his wife on the cheek. His last words were: "Well, Nora, I guess I'm going. We have made a brave fight."

When the governor had breathed his last, Mrs. Johnson, who had been in almost hourly attendance at her husband's bedside, and who had borne up bravely under the ordeal, totally collapsed and was taken to the Sullivan home.

John A. Johnson was the first native Minnesotan to be chosen governor of that state, and of that distinction he was prouder than of any other feature of his career.

Governor Johnson was born near St. Peter's, Minn., 48 years ago, of Swedish parents. His first venture in politics resulted in defeat for state senator in 1894, just before he had married Miss Eleanor M. Preston, a teacher. In 1898 he was again nominated by the Democrats for the senate and was elected. In 1904 he was nominated for governor by the Democratic state convention and was elected. Two years later he was re-elected overwhelmingly. When it was proposed to nominate him for a third time the governor declared he would not be a candidate, but he was unanimously nominated and re-elected by a big majority.

It has been decided to send Governor Johnson's body to St. Paul on a special train this afternoon. A detail of militia will meet the cortege at the station here and escort it to the state capitol, where the body will lie in state all day tomorrow. Funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon in the Presbyterian church at St. Peter's. Governor Johnson's body will be buried beside that of his mother.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 21.—Adolph O. Eberhart was sworn in as governor of the state of Minnesota today by Chief Justice Start, of the supreme court. According to the constitution the lieutenant governor becomes governor immediately following the death of a governor. Adolph O. Eberhart was born in Sweden 38 years ago, but came to Minnesota in 1881. He studied for the ministry, but afterwards took up the study of law and soon built up a large practice. For many years Mr. Eberhart has been interested in politics and had worked hard for the success of the Republican party. In 1902 and 1905 he was elected to the state senate. In 1906 he was elected lieutenant governor, and was returned in 1908. Mr. Eberhart's name was originally Olson. Because in Minnesota, where he formerly lived, there were half a dozen or more Adolph Olsons, the future state official when he was married obtained from the court permission to take the name of his wife.

THREE KILLED IN COLLISION

PATHE, N. H., Sept. 21.—Three men were killed early today, when the Montreal express, bound from Montreal for Boston, crashed into the rear of the disabled Quebec express from Quebec for Boston, about a mile and a half from this station. The dead are Engineer John P. Callahan, Concord, N. H., of the Montreal express; Fireman George Parmeter, Concord, of the Montreal express; and an unknown tramp riding on the Montreal express. No passengers were injured. Both of the Montreal express engines were wrecked and a car of the Quebec train was knocked into splinters. The wreckage caught fire, but the flames were soon extinguished. Engineer Callahan and Fireman Parmeter died in their places. The accident occurred in the train yard, a short distance from the state line at Pathe. The trains were travelling only five minutes apart, and when the auxiliary engine of the Quebec express gave out the following train could not be warned.

DEATHS REPORTED

GALVESTON, Texas, Sept. 21.—Reports of a number of deaths in the hurricane on the Louisiana coast reached here today. High waves were reported to be washing into a number of exposed coast settlements. There was no wire communication between here and New Orleans. The Texas coast escaped the storm.

HAVOC AT JACKSON

JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 21.—Two persons were killed by falling walls last night as the result of the storm which swept over portions of Mississippi yesterday. The east dome of the capitol building was crushed in and a number of upper rooms flooded. Hundreds of buildings were unroofed.

MORE DEAD

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 21.—It is reported that nearly every plantation between New Orleans and Baton Rouge suffered damage from the storm. It is believed that the damage to the sugar crop will amount to a million dollars. News reached here tonight that 106 barges with coal went down in the Mississippi river, near Dobell, La., last night in the storm. The cargoes were valued at $500,000. Seven additional deaths in Louisiana as a result of yesterday's hurricane were reported last night.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 21.—The report that Jewish riots have occurred at Khiev is officially denied at the chancellery of Premier Stolypin.

LILLOOET RIVER POWER

VANCOUVER, Sept. 21.—The Burrard Power company has received from the Dominion government a grant of 25,000 miners' inches of water on Lillooet river. This is said to be practically the entire output of Lillooet lakes at low water stage. Under the terms of the grant the harnessing of the waters of the Lillooet will be commenced at no distant date, and as the power plant will be only 25 miles from Vancouver it is declared that it will not be long before some sections of industrial Vancouver will be drawing power from this source.

PRICE OF LOGS ADVANCES

VANCOUVER, Sept. 21.—Owing to a decrease in the supply, the price of fir logs has been stiffening during the past few weeks, according to a statement made today by a lumberman, and it is expected that during the winter there will be a further advance. Fir logs are now quoted at between $7 and $9 per thousand feet, which is an advance of about $1.

COMMISSION IN THE INTERIOR

Much Evidence Taken on Provincial Forestry Conditions at Inland Points

Hon. F. J. Fulton, Chief Commissioner of Lands, returned last evening from the Mainland, where he has been for the last fortnight, presiding over the sittings of the Timber and Forestry Commission at interior points. A. S. Goodve, M. P., has gone to his home in Rossland and to fulfil some business engagements, and A. C. Elmerfeldt proceeded east to Alberta to look after some of his interests there. The commission will resume in New Westminster on Monday morning next, and will complete the taking of evidence in Vancouver.

It has been a very strenuous two weeks for the commissioners, both in the hearing of witnesses and traveling. Sittings were held in Kamloops, Vernon, Revelstoke, Nelson, Cranbrook, Fernie and Grand Forks, and there was little spare time at any of these points. At all of them, especially at Cranbrook, many more witnesses could have been heard if the commission had been able to remain. It would, however, have been but corroborative of the evidence taken, along one line or another, so that nothing material has been missed.

In the interior, largely owing to the smaller supply of timber and more restricted markets, the lumbermen have many different problems from those which confront their fellows on the coast. In addition, the agricultural interests demand the protection of the forests in order that irrigation may be maintained. The representations made go to prove what a big question the commissioners have to deal with. There was a great deal of evidence put in at all the points visited, as seven sessions lasting as much as seven hours a day sometimes, and all of this was followed most carefully by the three members. In view of the difference in conditions inland, heavy demands were made on the attention of the commissioners, as the statements made naturally conflicted with those made at the coast—apparently. There was also some slight variations in the views of individual lumbermen just as on the coast, although in the main there was the same request for perpetuity of tenure and fixity of license fee.

In travelling through the boundary country the commissioners saw on every hand the terrible ravages wrought by forest fires, and are fully impressed with the absolute necessity of keeping fire out of the growing timber. While it is impossible even to guess at what lines their general recommendations will follow, there is no doubt that the commissioners will suggest some very effective and thorough system of patrolling the forests during the dry season of the year.

grades, and of high school pupils, some of the charcoal work done by the pupils of the latter school being remarkable in its excellence. In the primary class exhibits there is a notable collection of British Columbia birds, done in water colors by pupils of the Hillside school. There are also objects done with brush on the article, for instance, hats, and landscapes, pen and ink drawings, and studies from still life. Some of the nature studies by the little ones of the primary schools speak volumes for the excellence of the training. A notable series shown in this exhibit is the studies of flora in various stages of development. The designing work done by the children also make an attractive display. The pupil is given a set geometrical design, and evolves from this a design which includes the various features of the copy, altered according to the imagination of the little artist. Book covers and monograms are shown, and even labels, a notable study being that of one of the senior grade scholars, whose conception of a salmon label, with the lettering arranged, and colored representative of the fish, is of high rank. The studies of roses, cherries, chestnut blossoms, etc., taken from season to season, in their changing condition, are excellently done, and the studies made by the children, of their own imagination, to illustrate stories and poems are worthy of note. The scholar is given a theme, such as "Hawthorne's Sailing," "Three Fishermen went Sailing," etc., and the exhibition includes the various conceptions of how the subject should be illustrated. The needlework and fancy work of the little misses hold a place by itself, and it is also well worth spending some time over.

Concerts.

In the women's building—which it was inadvertently stated yesterday had been opened by Mrs. F. Barnard, instead of Mrs. G. H. Barnard—there were concerts afternoon and evening. Yesterday afternoon a concert was given arranged by Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mr. A. T. Goward's clear tenor voice was heard in a solo; Mrs. Gideon Hicks soprano sang; J. G. Brown sang; and Mrs. D. C. Reid, Mrs. H. Briggs, Miss E. Stihl, R. Morrison, and Herbert Kent gave solos, and Benedict Bantley was heard in violin solo, and Mr. Herbert Scott in cello solo, while Miss Marguerite Evans recited. In the evening an excellent programme arranged by Mr. Morgan was given, to which the following contributed: Miss E. Palmer, Miss E. Cocker, Mr. T. O. Dunford, Mr. T. H. Griffiths, Mr. M. Gault, Mr. W. A. Butler (violinist), Mr. H. Searle (flautist), Miss Helen French (cello), and (accompanist).

Band concerts were given by the city band, under Bandmaster Rogers, and selections by the St. Andrew's Pipe band, under Pipe-major Macdonald. The pipe band, in full regalia, played several of the stirring airs of Auld Scotia, and took no small part in the day's proceedings.

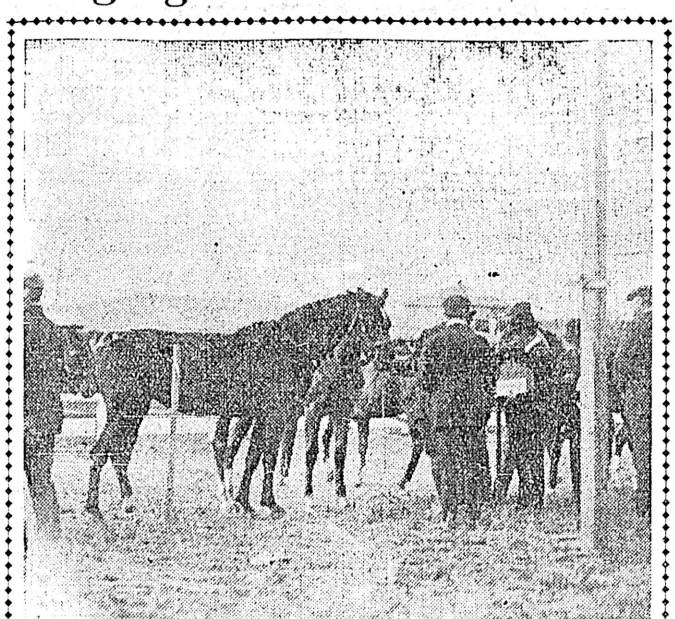

The Sideshows

The local "Paystreak" was busy at the exhibition grounds. Behind their canvas walls the Egyptian fortune-tellers read many things in the palms of those who crossed them with silver, and Zeek, the Arizona wild man, disported himself as the wild African chief who came all the way from Zululand, and the photographers were busy. T. Merry-go-round whirled, and the spiceries spilled.

Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church, and others vie with the restaurant. J. Robinson has also secured restaurant privileges. Everything possible has been done to cater to the attending visitors.

Concert in Woman's Building

The ladies who have shown such zeal in undertaking the erection of the Women's building, have been equally as energetic in arranging for a series of popular entertainments which will be held in their building during this week. A number of ladies and gentlemen have undertaken to arrange concerts, that for this evening being in the hands of Herbert Kent. The assisting artist on this occasion will be Miss Adela Skelton, a resident of this city who plays the violin in a most charming and artistic manner. This will be Miss Skelton's first appearance before a Victoria audience, and she will undoubtedly receive a very hearty reception. The following is the complete programme, which will commence at 8 o'clock:

"Tag Day" Tomorrow

Tomorrow will be "Tag Day" at the fair when everyone, big and little, will be expected to be duly "tagged" for the benefit of the Anti-Tuberculosis society. The ladies have pledged themselves to raise sufficient funds to furnish the dining-room at the Trans-Pacific sanitarium. Some 5,000 cards bearing the legend in red letters, "I have helped Tranquille, I have helped," will be circulated to any and all of those who contribute towards this fund. A contributor bearing this card will not be asked to contribute again. The ladies will be out in full force and that everyone will be tagged goes without saying so earnest are the ladies in their work of adding to this much needed fund. Small tents will be erected on the busy street corners and a number will be erected on the grounds where the campaign in aid of the fund will be directed.

Meets Death in Fire

WALLA WALLA, Sept. 21.—Lee Jung, a Chinaman, was burned to death in a fire shortly before noon yesterday which nearly destroyed an old frame dwelling situated a block from the business section. The firemen were inside the house, but the victim was not discovered until after they had the flames under control. Another Chinaman who occupied the house made his escape, but told no one that Jung, who is an invalid and who was probably asleep, still remained in the house.

GERMANY IS NOT LOOKING FOR WAR

Editor of Leading German Paper Deprecates Talk of Hostilities With Britain

Dr. William Cohnstaedt, one of the foremost newspapermen in the German Empire, editor-in-chief of the great German daily, Frankfurter Zeitung, which occupies in that Empire a position similar to that held by the London Times in Great Britain, is a visitor in the city, a guest at the Empress.

Dr. Cohnstaedt left Germany in March last on a visit to the United States, with a view to looking into the tariff revision which was then under consideration. He spent four months at Washington, D. C., studying the tariff on behalf of his paper. In reply to a query he said that he had reached the conclusion that the latest revision in the United States aimed more at protection than ever before, even allowing the concessions made at the request of President Taft. The changes were arranged for before the intervention of President Taft, but such an arrangement was withheld from the public with a view to letting down easily the revisionists.

The doctor stated that the tariff as revised in the United States was not aimed at Great Britain and Germany, but at France. The new tariff would mean to France a higher rate on silks, hosiery, toilet articles, cotton goods and more especially wines, and he believed would do considerable permanent damage to the French manufactures.

Asked as to why France should be singled out by the American government in such a manner, Dr. Cohnstaedt said that the United States got from France only fifty to sixty per cent of the French minimum tariff, while from Germany that government got ninety-five per cent of the minimum, and the only point at issue between the two countries so far as the tariff was concerned, was the other five per cent. He saw possibilities of France adopting a tariff wall which would probably be prohibitive in so far as the importation of American goods to France is concerned.

The Canadian Surtax

Speaking of the surtax, which for some time the Dominion government has imposed on goods of German manufacture coming into Canada, Dr. Cohnstaedt expressed the opinion that such an action was injurious to both countries. He said such a tax was very much to be regretted as it retarded commercial relations between the countries that should have amicable relations. He pointed out that in Germany was to be found a good market for such a class of goods as agricultural implements, and that such goods would find a good market there if the tariff permitted a business being done to advantage. On the other hand, a number of articles manufactured in Germany could be imported into Canada to the advantage of the German settler if the surtax was removed and more amicable commercial relations existed between the two countries.

Scores Lord Northcliffe

Dr. Cohnstaedt next spoke of the interviews given to the local papers by Lord Northcliffe, while a visitor to this city in connection with the question of surtaxing goods from Germany. The doctor said that he had read with much regret the interviews, and believed that Lord Northcliffe had not got in touch with the true German opinion on the subject. Ten years ago his lordship might have found in Germany some newspapers advocating the equality of the German navy with other navies, but he did not think he could have found any demanding that Germany should have supremacy of the seas. The papers advocating equality for the German navy even ten years ago did not speak for the German public's opinion and wielded but little influence in the destinies of the Empire.

The Naval Scare

Dr. Cohnstaedt next touched upon what he described as "a phantom nightmare," the ever-increasing anxiety in London over the German naval programme, and said that there never was in his opinion a naval scare either in England or Germany, as one would be led to believe from reading the daily press. A scare that may have existed, did so only in London and not in the Empire as a whole, and in Germany such a condition was taken so lightly as to be the butt of the papers, and a good source of merriment at the expense of England.

Speaking of the German naval programme, the doctor stated that the Canadian press did not get the right idea, apparently owing to the fact that their information came through British sources. The whole excitement was caused by a so-called discovery that Germany was building a navy much quicker than was expected.

Germany's Explanation

This discovery and the consternation it caused in London was not, Dr. Cohnstaedt said, appreciated in Germany, as the cause of it could not be understood because Germany had not changed her naval programme since 1900, and not one more battleship had been built since then than was then provided for. In 1906 the German government built some cruisers, which were approved of by the Reichstag, but for which the estimate was provided in the original naval plans of 1900. In addition to the building of these cruisers in 1906, the government in 1907 changed the plans of several of the battleships, and decided that the life of a ship should in future be twenty years instead of twenty-five, as provided for prior to this amendment to the law. This action by the government only meant, the doctor said, that the German ships should be placed on the same basis as the battleships of Great Britain, the United States, or other large naval powers, in so far as the commissioned life of the war vessel was concerned.

In consequence of this move it was found that a number of vessels then in commission in the German navy were obsolete, and would have to be replaced, consequently orders were given to build new vessels to replace the old boats taken off the actual fighting strength of the navy.

This was all, Dr. Cohnstaedt declared, there was in what a part of the British people described as the abnormal growth of the German fleet.

Germany Not Antagonistic

The doctor, commenting on what he described as the alleged German antagonism to Great Britain, said that neither the German people nor the German press were antagonistic to Great Britain, and he could see no basis for the belief that war was imminent between the two countries. The only danger of such excitement as recently occurred in London was that something might happen along the line of the Dogger affair, when Russia's naval vessels fired on Hull fishing boats. Such a condition would stir up a bitter feeling, and irresponsible might force the countries into war. Only by some such unfortunate accident, Dr. Cohnstaedt said, was war possible between the two empires, and he could not at present see no political reasons which would justify the countries going to war.

Not Seeking Colonies

Dr. Cohnstaedt next spoke of Lord Northcliffe's reference to Germany spreading out and looking towards new colonies to take her surplus population. Lord Northcliffe was evidently not familiar with the true condition actually existing in Germany, which he described as a country where the population, instead of looking for a place to provide for her alleged surplus population, was today in a position to adequately provide for, in the home-land, many more millions, and to meet the growing demands for labor, Germany had to import several thousands of Galicians and Poles to supply the labor market. Germany was not so much in need of a place for her people to go to as to get an outlet for her ever-increasing manufactured products.

Trade Conditions in Germany

Speaking of trade conditions in Germany, the doctor said that they were affected by the general depression of a year ago, but not to such an extent as was the case in the United States, yet the depression did a great deal of harm to the industries in the home-land owing to the fact that the development of industries in Germany was greater than there was capital for, and consequently the pinch caused by the scarcity of money was more acute. In conclusion, Dr. Cohnstaedt said he was very favorably impressed with business conditions in the United States and Canada, and was more than pleased to see the signs of progress, which he noticed in Western Canada, and prophesied a great future for this province.

Local Impressions

Speaking of Victoria, he said it was the prettiest city he had seen since coming to Canada, and he was struck by the natural beauty of the surroundings, but he could not say, he was sorry to say the same for the city, in some respects at least, the streets here appeared uncared for. He expressed the hope that in the not too distant future the city streets would be put in such shape as to lend an air of equality to the beautiful natural surroundings of the city.

Dr. Cohnstaedt left yesterday afternoon on the Princess Charlotte for Seattle on his way to San Francisco, from which point he will go to New York and thence to his home in Germany.

The factory and offices are located in the Brine Block, on Columbia Avenue, where, as may be seen by the above illustration, some thirty union men are employed in the manufacture of "Smokes." The principal brands manufactured by the firm are respectively the "B. C.," "Old Sport," "Brilliant," "Auto" and "Puck" Cigars. Nothing but the highest grade of imported tobaccos being used, while with the best and most experienced workmanship, the product of the above institution must, of necessity, be of the highest class. Mr. Nat Darling, who is known at the gates throughout the length and breadth of British Columbia and Alaska for the past twenty years as "Nat, the Cigar Man," is the capable travelling representative of the firm. Messrs. Wilberg and Wolz, the proprietors, arrived in British Columbia in 1882, and until 1884 were in the employ of Mr. John Kurtz, of Victoria, B. C., when they started in business for themselves in a small way, but which has today developed into one of the most, if not the most, important business of its kind in British Columbia, constantly employing as it does some thirty high class workmen, besides the usual number of apprentices and strippers allowed by the union.

CONGO ATROCITIES

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's Book Likely to Open Eyes of World to Their Enmity

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Sir Arthur Conan Doyle has left England for Gibraltar. In departing he gave forth a long interview declaring his views of the Congo atrocities. His book on the crimes in the Congo will be issued simultaneously in Europe and America within the next ten days. Sir Conan wrote it without the idea of profit, and his royalties will be expended entirely in distributing free copies, so that people in all other parts of the world may be brought to realize what frightful conditions exist.

It is the general belief that Doyle's book will force the powers to some action for the uprooting of the evil. Sir Conan declares that not a promise of reform has been kept, and that the crimes against the Congo blacks continue unabated.

Many reports and documents are incorporated in the book to prove Doyle's charges that civilization has never before condoned a situation of greater cruelty and horror.

AN HONOR TO BOTH.

After two years' experience, during which there has been no difficulty or disagreement of any kind whatever, the contract between the Western Fuel company and its employees has been renewed by a unanimous vote of the miners for another term of two years. This is a very satisfactory piece of news, and it shows that coal mining can be carried on without friction between employees and employer, when good sense and reasonable judgment is employed on both sides.

As a matter of fact, there is singularly little trouble in connection with our island coal mines. In other parts of the continent very serious complications are continually arising, but on this island as a rule, things move along with quiet smoothness. Such a state of things is an honor both to the operators and the miners.

AS ANOTHER SEES US

Professor John Marshall, of Queen's University, Toronto, is entitled to his opinions, although whether they are worth anything or not is also a matter of opinion. He has been to Victoria and has been writing things about our city and its people. Barring our Parliament Buildings, the Empress and the Post Office—the latter only by courtesy—he says we have no fine buildings, and that all the houses we have anyway are "about one or two corners." We are never averse to criticism, but venture to suggest that a few structures such as the Bank of Montreal, the Merchants' Bank, Pither & Leiser's warehouse, Weller's, Spencer's, Prior & Co.'s, Wilson Bros., the Transfer Company's stable, and others that could be named, are outside of the class of "low two and three storey structures," while the Driford, the Dominion, the Dallas and the Oak Bay will compare very favorably with hotels in more pretentious cities. The Metropolitan Methodist church has few superiors in Canada; St. Andrew's Cathedral and St. Andrew's Presbyterian church are far from being insignificant structures. Among private residences the number of fine buildings is very numerous for a city of 40,000 people. Prof. Marshall was not quite blind; he was only unobservant, for he says: "The beauty of Victoria lies in its unparalleled series of sea beaches and sea views; the long arm of the sea, with its reversible waterfall at the gorge, that runs inland for several miles and divides the city into two parts; the Beacon Hill Park on the sea shore, and the Gorge Park at the other side of the city."

We think we know what was the matter with the Professor. He failed to get a square meal, and perhaps the reason was that he was too economical in his ideas. Else why should he say: "Victoria is, during the movement of tourists, one damned lunch counter." Where could the Professor have been fed during his visit? This one expression completely gives him away. He probably tried to see the town "between boats," and spent most of his time looking for a two-bit dinner.

TOO VALUABLE FOR WHEAT

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy is quoted as saying that the irrigated lands in the prairie region are too valuable for wheat. This calls for a little explanation, for some might ask why any land should be worth so much for the production of this grain, and, if it is, what use can be made of it. A few weeks ago we published a statement made by Mr. P. Burns to the effect that the day of the great cattle ranges was passing away, and that farmers would have to take into consideration the advisability of carrying on mixed farming, keeping a small number of cattle for beef purposes. These two statements seem to fit into each other admirably. The relatively small area of the irrigated farms, while they will yield wheat luxuriantly, are insufficient to give their owners a good living, if sown to grain, whereas, if devoted to alfalfa and other fodder crops they can be made highly remunerative as dairy farms. We have not in Western Canada begun to look upon farming from the strict business point of view. Fruit-growers are rapidly learning to do so with excellent results but, generally speaking, men who till the soil for a living, do not work the question out from a business point of view. In countries where farms of moderate size are the rule, it is axiomatic to say that dairying is the foundation of successful agriculture. By its prosecution the products of the soil are marketed in their perfected form, and in the smallest possible bulk, thereby securing the highest price and reducing the cost of transportation. The by-products of dairy farming are many, and among them are beef cattle. Beef produced in this way is of the highest quality, and hence commands the best price. The irrigated lands along the Canadian Pacific Railway, under a progressive system of dairy farming, could probably produce a greater weight of beef cattle than they did in the old days when they formed parts of ranges, and in addition vast quantities of butter, cheese and pork. The size of the holdings will ensure close settlement. We look upon the future of these irrigated lands with the most optimistic expectations, and believe they will form one of the most populous and prosperous regions in Canada.

A PROPOSED CELEBRATION.

The Canadian Peace and Arbitration Society, of which Sir William Muloch is president, has taken preliminary steps towards enlisting government assistance in celebrating in an appropriate way the conclusion of a century of peace between Great Britain and the United States. In five years the century will be completed, and we think it pretty safe to assume that between the present date and 1914 nothing is likely to arise that will disturb the friendly relations between the two countries. A petition to the Dominion government has been drawn up, and it reads as follows:

We, the undersigned citizens of Canada, rejoicing in the manifold blessings that have come to us through a century of unbroken peace, and believing that a suitable commemoration of this unique event in the world's history is both fitting and profitable to the government of Canada, either alone or jointly with that of the United States, as may be deemed expedient, to arrange for a national or international commemoration of an event of such world-wide significance whereby the whole people may have the opportunity of participating in a public expression of thanksgiving to the Giver of all good for the blessings that have flowed to them from a century of peace. Such public commemoration of the happy conditions that have thus prevailed between Canada and the United States, with the resultant benefits to the two countries, will it is hoped, also serve as an object lesson to the world as to the influence of peace upon human progress, and accelerate the arrival of the time when international differences may be settled, not by the arbitrament of the sword, but by appeals to international courts of justice.

These sentiments will undoubtedly be universally endorsed, and the only difference of opinion likely to arise is as to the manner in which the suggestion can be carried into effect. The proposed Selkirk Centennial in 1912 would to some extent interfere with an exhibition in 1914, although not necessarily so. The Springfield Republic thinks the most appropriate celebration would be the signing of a treaty making perpetual the agreement limiting the naval armament on the Great Lakes. The occasion does not seem to be one to be commemorated by an exhibition.

HOW FAR NORTH?

How far north does Canada extend? To appreciate this question fully it is necessary to look at the map, but a few ideas regarding it may be given with one. Necessarily the east and west boundaries of the Dominion must converge as they extend north, and if they reach to the Pole must come together in a point. This is obvious when we look at the boundary between the Yukon Territory and Alaska. This is the 141st meridian W. Now it will hardly be claimed that after this meridian passes into the Arctic Ocean, Canadian territory extends west of it, unless there happens to be an Arctic continent, as Captain Mikkelsen believes, a part of which lies east of that longitude 141. In that event, as the part east of the meridian would undoubtedly be Canadian, the part west of it might also be so regarded, although it would be north of Alaska, because Alaska is specifically defined as extending only to the ocean. No question has ever been raised as to Canadian jurisdiction over the great archipelago between Baffin's Bay on the east and Beaufort Sea on the west. How far north this land goes is an open question. The latest maps show all discovered area west of Greenland as Canadian, but the map makers can hardly be regarded as competent to settle a matter of this kind. We quote on the question of territorial jurisdiction the following from the Montreal Gazette:

In Bouchette's "British Dominions in Northern America," much thought is devoted to the subject of boundaries, as to which the author was in his day an expert. After weighing every point touching the disputed boundaries of the regions of British North America, Col. Bouchette writes: "On the parallel of the 49th deg. of north latitude, the extreme breadth is about 3,000 geographical miles; and their greatest depth from the most southern point of Upper Canada in Lake Erie to Smith's Sound in the polar regions, rather more than 2,150." A little before, Bouchette names 78 deg. north as the limit, being "the extreme point to which the discoveries have hitherto extended towards the Arctic Pole." Robert Montgomery Martin mentions the Hudson Bay Territories as the northern boundary of Canada, and he defines the Hudson Bay Territories as extending from the 50th of N. lat. to the Pole. In August, 1860, McLintock conducted the line of soundings from Cape Farewell (Greenland) to Hamilton Inlet (Labrador). At the head of the Inlet he found Mr. Donald Smith, who represented the company, and who "had lived there for twelve years, cultivating some of the land with vegetables, root crops and barley and collecting wild grass from the swamps for hay. He had a horse, half a dozen cows, goats and poultry." The Statesman's Year-Book, which is edited by the Secretary of the Royal Geographical Society and editor of its Journal, in summing up the constituents of the Dominion, concludes with the Arctic Islands, and computes the total area at 3,315,647 square miles, or, if allowance be made for lakes, rivers, etc., 3,456,383. Dr. S. E. Dawson, C. M. G., writes in his "North America (Canada and Newfoundland), in Stanford's Compendium of Geography and Travel, that "from the parallels of 42, 46 and 49 deg. Canada extends to the unknown regions of the Pole." Mr. E. F. Knight, in his "Oversea Britain," writes as follows:—"It extends from the Arctic Ocean to latitude 42 deg. north—the latitude of Rome—and from the Atlantic to the Pacific, with an extreme breadth of over 3,000 miles. It has an estimated area of 3,745,000 square miles, and is, therefore, nearly as large as Europe and larger than the United States." The Encyclopædia Britannica (tenth edition) estimates the area of the Dominion at 3,650,000 square miles. In the map of North America of the same important work, Canada includes Prince Patrick, Melville, North Devon and Cornwallis Islands.

Mr. C. A. Bogart, general manager of the Dominion Bank, stated in Winnipeg that a permanent location in Victoria for that institution would shortly be selected and a building would be put up.

Within a few days of Captain Scott's announcement that he would lead an expedition to the South Pole, over seven thousand English men and boys offered to go with him. The spirit of adventure is still alive in the Old Land.

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy said that the Canadian Pacific is not contemplating connection with Vancouver Island by way of a line across British Columbia. This statement is valuable because it leaves the way clear for others.

Will Messrs. Peary and Cook kindly get in a corner somewhere and settle that North Pole business? It is not so much what they say about each other that is vexatious, but to pick up exchange after exchange and see yards of editorial on the question of the probable veracity of these explorers gives one that tired feeling.

The death of Governor Johnson, of Minnesota, will be lamented by many thousands of people. He was a man of remarkable powers, one of which was the ability to win personal popularity. He was looked upon as a very probable Democratic candidate for the Presidency of the United States. Governor Johnson visited Victoria only a few weeks ago.

It is said that Lord Arthur Carleton, who accompanied Lord Charles Beresford to Canada in the capacity of secretary, had in mind the revival of a hereditary order of military aristocracy, which his great grandfather, Sir Charles Carleton endeavored to inaugurate. Possibly this does Lord Arthur an injustice, although there are some people who are yet unconvinced that it was not a mistake to have such an institution. Some absurd people wanted to revive it in connection with the establishment of the senate.

A German paper printed in Winnipeg thinks that Lord Charles Beresford and Lord Northcliffe were "sent" to Canada to stir up the people to consent to the construction of a much stronger fleet than is really needed for Canadian defence. The suggestion is too absurd for serious consideration. Nothing that either of these distinguished visitors has said justifies such a construction, apart altogether from the unreasonableness of the suggestion that they were sent by anyone. Lord Northcliffe did speak very strongly on one or two occasions of the German menace to British naval supremacy, but he said nothing more than has been said over and over again by persons much better qualified to speak on such matters than he.

Three young fellows, not much more than boys, have been guilty of the very foolish and really criminal act of getting money on checks drawn against accounts that were not in funds. Of course they did very wrong. Why they did so we do not know, and of course cannot unless they themselves tell. Probably they regret their folly more than any one else; but we say to their friends that a single act of inexcusable folly ought not to be allowed to wreck their lives. What they have lost of their reputations by their acts can most surely be recovered where it was lost. And so we say that they ought to come back and face the consequences of what they have done. If not they will carry those consequences all through their lives, not publicly perhaps where all men can see them, but certainly in their own consciences.

We observe the following paragraph in the Ottawa Free Press in an account of the visit of Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson and Mr. C. M. Hays, of the Grand Trunk Pacific, to the capitals. "It can be definitely promised that no action will be taken by the government as to the use of Asiatic labor on the mountain section until there is a full meeting of the cabinet and that it is highly improbable that any such permission will be granted. In view of the delay which the collapse of the Quebec bridge entails in the completion of the Transcontinental there is not the same need for the speedy completion of the mountain section as might otherwise have been the case and it is quite probable that a compromise will be reached by giving the company an extension of time for the completion of that section." This may not be anything more than the guess of a reporter, for we observe no editorial comment upon it. It is not, however, too soon to say, first, that the people of British Columbia will be to a man opposed the introduction of Chinese labor for the purpose mentioned; second, that they will to a man protest against any extension of time, unless it may be due to physical difficulties, and third, that the collapse of the Quebec bridge has, as far as any one here can say, absolutely no bearing whatever upon the construction of the British Columbia section of the railway.

News of the World in Brief

PROVINCIAL

Block For Chilliwack.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 21.—A substantial business block, which will add materially to the appearance of the business section of Chilliwack is rising on the corner of Westminister and Young streets. The building is of reinforced concrete, and will be of two storeys. It is being erected for the Westminister Trust company of this city.

Large Sturgeon Caught.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 21.—A sturgeon, eleven feet six inches in length, and weighing almost seven hundred pounds, was caught in the Fraser River near the mouth of the Pitt river on Saturday. Macgowan vs. Heaps.

VANCOUVER, Sept. 21.—Mr. Justice Clement has dismissed with costs the action brought by Max Macgowan against E. H. Heaps, in which the former was suing for the return of money and promissory notes amounting to some $90,000, which he claimed were paid to Mr. Heaps for property in the Wellington district, Vancouver Island. Mr. Macgowan alleged that Mr. Heaps misrepresented the property to him by saying that it contained valuable coal deposits.

Labor Supply Short.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 21.—Lots of employment, but few laborers, is the cry of building and road contractors in this city, and as high as $2.25 and $2.50 per day is being offered to all the men available, and still there is a large shortage. The contractors for the street paving are having a particularly hard time to secure men, and if the supply of labor does not improve soon it will be well on into the winter before the extensive works on Columbia street are completed. The board of works, which is also finding it difficult to secure men for the large sewer extensions and others work being carried on in the city at the present time.

Land For Pre-emption.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 21.—H. Neville Smith, of this city, who has been engaged with a large party of surveyors during the past summer in the laying out for pre-emption of a large tract of land along the Bonaparte river, north of Kamloops, has returned to the city, and reports that the new section is excellent for stock-raising and grain-growing. The location is about 100 miles north of the Canadian Pacific railway, but is within ten or fifteen miles of the proposed line of the Canadian Northern railway, and the tract surveyed, which includes several hundred sections, will be open for pre-emption as soon as the plans are complete and filed at Victoria. A number of settlers have already gone to the district to take up land which has been surveyed, a number going early in the summer.

Here is health and strength and bodily vigor personified. The parents are well—therefore there have been no weak, puny, peevish children.

The health of the child depends much on the health of the parents. Thus, there is the necessity of expectant mothers especially paying great attention to their general health. Alberta Grain Held CALGARY, Sept. 21.—Southern Alberta farmers evince no desire to rush this year's crop upon the market. Despite the fact that high prices are being paid, the major portion of the grain now being threshed is being stored in granaries or being held in line elevators by farmers. The price being paid for oats is five cents in advance of the price offered at this time last year, but agriculturists, realizing that they control the market, in many cases refuse to sell even at this advance.

Salvation Army Colonists

CALGARY, Alta., Sept. 21.—Fully developed farms are rapidly being made available in the Bow River Valley. The Salvation Army some months ago entered into negotiations with the Canadian Pacific Irrigation Colonization Company and had a tract reserved for the exclusive use of colonists that the army is to bring out. The Canadian Pacific, in order to assist the army, undertook to develop a number of 80 acre farms, and the work is now rapidly nearing completion. Fifty acres of winter wheat has been sown on each 80 acres. Wells are being put down by two well boring outfits, excellent water being secured at a depth of no case exceeding 63 feet. Twenty miles of fence has already been erected.

Railway Rates on Lumber

OTTAWA, Sept. 21.—The railway commission this morning took up the long-adjourned case of the Canadian Lumbermen's Association against the railways for disallowance of the new rates on lumber. J. F. Orde, K. C., appeared for the lumbermen W. H. Biggar, K. C., for the Grand Trunk, W. W. Beatty for the Canadian Pacific, and F. H. Phippen, K. C., for the Canadian Northern. The C. P. R. and G. T. R. figures show that the result of the new rates was an increase of 3.14 per cent. with the C. P. R. per cent. net increase if all classes of lumber traffic are considered, while the C. N. R. claimed that its receipts had decreased. Lumbermen contended that the new tariff increased the charges by $19,807 in one year, or an average increase of $1.51 per car.

Rich Silver Ore

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 21.—A rich discovery of silver is reported from the Silver Mountain district, fifty miles west of here, on the Port Arthur & Duluth railway. A prospector named A. Burnatchi, working on a claim held by him under option, uncovered a vein four to five feet in width, and traced it nearly a mile. He began sinking a shaft, and got down 35 feet, when water entered and stopped his work, after which he came here with a large quantity of ore, which he took out in making the shaft. The ore is described by local mining men as the richest that ever came out of the Silver Mountain district. It runs $20,000 to the ton. This district has been receiving some attention of late, and with a large area open for prospect, the new find will likely mean increasing activity. The ore is similar to Cobalt, with more sulphur.

NEWS OF THE CITY

Local Bank Clearings

Local bank clearings for the week ended Tuesday, aggregated $1,458,722.

Druggists Will Holiday

All druggists will close their place of business on "Citizens' Day," Thursday, from 1 o'clock to 6 o'clock.

Will Represent City

The annual meeting of the B. C.
Union of Municipalities will be held at North Vancouver on Thursday, November 11. Mayor Hall and Aldermen Henderson and "Attorney General" Alderman Stewart will represent the city.

Concerts at Library

At the request of the Carnegie Library commissioners the city council will permit the Women's Musical Club to use a room in the upper floor of the library building for concert purposes. The club desires to hold ten concerts during the winter, one every three weeks, on Saturday afternoons from three to six o'clock.

Fort Street Improvement

As a result of the representations of the owners along that portion of Fort Street between the junction of Yates street and Oak Bay avenue the city will call for tenders for the pavement which it is proposed to lay. The city engineer will also be asked to tender.
The owners want tenders not only for wood block pavement but also for vitrified brick.

Object to Strangers

Since the fair opened a band of Gypsies has struck the city and located on Edmonton road. Owners on that thoroughfare have registered a strenuous kick at the presence of the members of the Romany tribe not only because of the suspicious looking nature of the strangers but also on sanitary grounds. The sanitary inspector will be instructed to investigate.

Street Car Does Damage.

Shortly after five o'clock yesterday afternoon a street car, when rounding the bend at the corner of Menzies and Simcoe streets, jumped the rails, and crossing the street, crashed through a sidewalk and fence, the passengers receiving a severe shaking. The accident caused a delay of half an hour until the car could be replaced on the track.

To Hold Special Meeting.

A special general meeting of the board of trade, to discuss the establishment of a new graving dock at Esquimalt and the means which should be employed to encourage the establishment of a steel shipbuilding industry at the same location, will be held on Friday afternoon at three o'clock. There will be a number of speakers on both subjects, and some interesting information is expected to be brought forward.

Laborers Protest

The Victoria Laborers' Association is again complaining of the fact that the city does not select its foremen from gangs accustomed to doing certain civic works but instead appoints men who are not conversant with the work over which they are put in charge. The association advocates appointments being made on the basis of efficiency and length of service.
Complaint is also made that foremen are employed when local workmen, British subjects and capable, are not given a chance.

Also Want Information

Following the action of the Board of Trade in requesting that the city furnish that body with all information possessed by the corporation relative to the water situation as it now stands the Trades and Labor Council has also made a request for information about the present and prospective sources of a water supply including Elk Lake, Sooke Lake, and Goldstream. The Trades and Labor Council desires information on the following points:
The ascertained or estimated area of the watershed; the estimated rainfall; the average maximum capacity of daily supply; the estimated cost of storage; of delivery mains to the city boundary; of acquisition of land; existing works; right of way, etc., and the incidental and contingent expenses and the time required for the completing of such works. This information, as far as possible, will be supplied as requested.

A Night With Burns

The Young Peoples' Society of St.
Andrew's church held a successful meeting on Monday evening last.
The programme was in the hands of the literary committee and proved an enjoyable one. An interesting and instructive paper on the poet "Burns" was given by J. M. Campbell, principal of the North Ward school, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The rest of the programme consisted of a piano solo by Miss Polson, and readings from "Burns" works by the Misses Cameron and Polson and Mr.
Thomas. The departure of the late president, J. B. Clearhorne for McGill college, Montreal, was made the occasion of a presentation to him of an address and purse as a slight token of appreciation of his great interest in and his services on behalf of the society since its inception. Mr. Clearhorne replied in a feeling manner, wishing the society every success in its future work.

Dandruff is caused by a Germ That Saps the Hair's Vitality.

It is now a settled fact that dandruff is caused by a germ. Falling hair and baldness are the result of dandruff.
Dr. E. J. Beardsley, of Champaign, Ill., got hold of the new hair preparation, Newbro's Herpicide—the only one that kills the dandruff germ. He says: "I used Herpicide for my dandruff and falling hair, and I am well satisfied with the result." Dr. T. Fugate, of Urbana, Ill., says: "I have used Her-picide for dandruff with excellent results. I shall prescribe it in my practice." Herpicide kills the dandruff germ. Physicians as well as the general public say so. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for

MAJOR A. W. CURRIE

NOTED SOLDIER VISITING CITY

Brigadier General Buchan Led Canadian Troops in Paardeberg Charge

Brigadier General Lawrence Buchan, C. M. G., commanding the forces in the province of Quebec, has been in the city for the past few days on leave of absence. General Buchan is a distinguished soldier, and has been in the Canadian militia since 1872, when he first obtained his ensigncy. His first regiment was the Queen's Own Rifles, and in this he became captain and adjutant. In 1885 he was appointed major in the Ninth-tenth Rifles, and the same year served through the Northwest Campaign (dispatches twice, medal and clasp). From 1885-1891 he commanded the Canadian Mounted Infantry, after which he was transferred to the Royal Canadian Regiment. He was made Lieutenant Colonel in 1895. During the Boer war, 1899-1900, he served with his regiment, and he it was that led the charge of the Canadian troops at Paardeberg. He received discharges twice, a medal with clasps—Cape Colony, Paardeberg, Driefontein, and Johannesburg. He acts as Hon. A. D. C. to the Governor General of Canada.

General Buchan is a guest at the Empress hotel during his visit to Victoria.

CARMEN WELL SUNG

Large Audience Hears Final Performance of International Grand Opera Company

A large audience heard the International Grand Opera Company in "Carmen" last night at the Victoria Theatre. On the whole it was well sung, although there were times when the prompter was unpleasantly in evidence. Mme. There is an exceedingly attractive Carmen. She sings with spirit, and acts with grace and in perfect harmony with her lines. She made a very favorable impression. M. Zata is a fine appearing Escamillo, with a good voice. M. Colombini made an acceptable Jose. The subordinate roles were very well taken, and the choruses were sung with much spirit. "Forsador," of course, captured the audience and had to be repeated. The orchestra played up to the standard of the previous evening.

The engagement of this talented company was much too short, and if it returns during the present season, it may expect to play to the full capacity of the house.

Kicked by Horse

Richard Cameron, an employee of the Island Transfer Company, residing at 938 Yates street, was kicked by a horse yesterday morning at the company's stables, sustaining serious injury to his side. He was taken to the Royal Jubilee hospital, where he was attended to by Dr. Fraser. Last night he was resting easily, but it is possible that an operation will have to be performed.

These are what you want from the Beehive Cash Store, Douglas Street: Warm Cashmere Frocks for little ones, $1.00; Knitted Jersey Coats for children, $1.00 and $1.25; good Stockings, 25c. and 35c.; Pile-lined Vests, 40c. or two for 75c. All English goods.

ALL IS READY FOR HORSE SHOW

Second Annual Show Opens
This Evening at Fair Grounds

Equine Aristocracy, the blue bloods of the horse kingdom, will make their bow to the public this evening when promptly at 8 o'clock the second annual horse show will open in the spacious building at the fair grounds. Equine beauty in all its perfections from the high class member of the horse kingdom to his humble but none the less useful and important brother of the general purpose class will hold the centre of attraction in the list of fair week events. For the balance of the week, both afternoon and evening horse show building will be the Mecca for all those who take delight in the fine points of the noblest of animals. Last year, the first season in which the ambitious project of a horse show was attempted, the directors contented themselves with but a single performance daily, but profiting by the experience gained then and appreciating the fact that Victorians are keenly interested in horse flesh a departure has been made this year. Not only in the evening but also during each afternoon will the programme be held. But today only one performance will be given, that opening tonight at 8 o'clock.

Success Assured

The success of this year's show is assured. With the best that outside cities, which glory in their ownership of high class equines, can enter together with a good representation from Victoria, the show will be truly representative of the coast. Entries have been received from Vancouver, Seattle, Tacoma, Portland and indeed as far east as Calgary. Every class is well represented, every class has its blue ribbon aspirant, and the judges will have no trouble when they undertake the task of picking the winners.

As is customary the show will prove one of the premier society events of the year and that there will be a full attendance of the wealth, fashion and beauty of the capital is assured from the advance sale of boxes.

Among the prominent exhibitors who have entered their animals for the show are the following:

Exhibitors.

Other exhibitors, many of them well known in Victoria, where they exhibited last year, are: Alderson and Walker, New Westminster; Robt. E. Barclay, Westholm, B. C.; A. E. Cameron, Gordon Head; A. H. Eckford, High River, Alta.; R. S. Fulton, Seattle; J. D. Farrell and Miss Helen Farrell, Maplewood Farm, Renton, Wash.; Capt. W. M. Inglis, Cochrane, Alta.; A. J. Macdonald, Calgary; R. A. Chalmers and Mitchell; H. W. Wilkerson, C. E. Redfern, J. M. Whitney Co., H. Dallas Helmcken, K. C.; Dr. S. P. Tolmie, T. W. Patterton, J. E. Smart, Messrs. R. P. Rhet and Co., H. J. Scott, J. A. Went to Fairview

The sisters of St. Ann's call attention to the fact that reports circulated to the effect that the girl Margaret Walker, was sent to the Sisters' convent at New Westminster are incorrect, and state that it was to the Sisters of the Good Shepherd at Fairview that she was sent.

At Pantages Theatre

"You've got me going, kid," and a few other live ones that are the latest in Eastern vaudeville just now, are introduced by Rogers, Sherman and Lukin at the Pantages. Their vocal numbers, combined with the screaming comedy they produce in the sketch "A visit to Uncle," creates a brand of amusement away from the ordinary, and one of the best laughing features here for a long time. "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," with all its gruesomeness is a novelty in vaudeville, and has a certain fascination that holds the interest of the audience. The balance of the show is in keeping with the above attractions, and the whole forms a pleasing combination.

Public Holiday

As Thursday next, the 23rd inst., has been set apart by the Executive of the B. C. Agricultural Association as "Citizens' Day," in connection with the Provincial Exhibition, I would respectfully request the citizens to observe that day as a public holiday, and that, as far as possible, all stores, offices, and places of business in the City be closed on the afternoon of that day.

Y.M.C.A. HAS HAD SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Gratifying Reports Submitted to Annual Meeting of Association

The annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held in the association rooms last night, when a large audience assembled to hear the different departmental reports, and to elect directors to fill the vacancies caused by the retirement of some of the older members of the board of directors. The gathering, one of the most successful in the annals of the association here, was presided over by R. B. McMicking, president of the branch. An air of optimism prevailed throughout, and the different reports presented showed that the association is doing good work, and that the funds are in good shape.

Encouraging addresses were delivered by some of the newly elected directors, and Mr. W. C. Kerr, the oldest member of the Victoria branch of the association, spoke briefly, giving some practical advice to the younger members.

President McMicking, in his address, stated that the past year had been the most gratifying one in the association's history. During the year $100,000 had been secured in half-yearly payments towards the cost of a new building. Nearly two thousand friends responded to the association's appeal for funds, which went to show that the association would have hearty co-operation when their new building was completed. Now that the citizens had displayed so marked a confidence in the association, it behooved the association to erect the best possible building available, and to this end a finance committee, under the enthusiastic chairmanship of A. B. Fraser had the matter in hand, and when the second payment came due in November, it was anticipated that the plans would be ready and the contracts let for the building.

President McMicking stated that the campaign for funds discovered for the association some excellent volunteer workers, who would now take a position on the directors' board for the first time. The association wished to express sincere thanks to the gentlemen retiring from the board of directors, and the directors would still count them active supporters though they retired from the board.

Year of Signal Success.

The co-operation of such zealous representative officials of the Y. M. C. A. as Messrs. C. R. Sayer, C. W. Michener, A. S. Allan, C. W. Wilcox, and J. M. Graham, had aided the society materially in its endeavor to advance. The past year had been one of signal success along ordinary association lines of influence. The directors had sustained four paid officers this year, viz.: a general secretary, physical director, boys' secretary, and an efficient caretaker. The policy of the board would be to conduct a full and effective winter programme and close the present work in the spring, to reopen in the fall in the association's new building.

In conclusion, the president, on behalf of himself and the officers of the year, took the opportunity to thank their many friends for their active co-operation.

The following reports were presented by the different heads of the departments, giving an account of the work done, and were adopted without discussion.

Dr. Russell, chairman of the membership department, presented to the gathering a few figures dealing with the progress of the association work. The figures given showed a membership of 165 boys and 253 men, making a total of 418, a decrease of 82 since the beginning of the year, which decrease was accounted for by the usual lapse of membership found in the summer months. The hope was expressed, however, that this would be recovered when the winter session opens on October 1st, and that the membership would be well over the 500 mark. The report showed that of the membership, 217 were active and 201 associate, or 52 per cent were active as church members. In the men's department, 174 members were active, 79 associate; or 70 per cent were active in church membership. In the boys' department, there were 43 active members and 122 associates, representing 27 per cent of active church membership.

The chairman said that the figures revealed a line of work that would need to be attended to. The average of active members of the association was not high, owing to the small number of active members in the boys' department. In commenting on this condition, the chairman said that while it was not wise to unduly hurry boys in church membership, the situation created afforded food for thought, as the boys of today will be the men of tomorrow. The policy of the association this year, and more particularly in the boys' department would be to faithfully

Mr. Cook Has Exciting Time Yesterday

The Fifty Dollars Is Still Unclaimed

Yesterday was a strenuous day for the man of mystery, dodging the many eager sleuths who were anxiously camped on his gilded trail. Especially when at the White Swan Washing Powder Exhibit. Twice he was all but gone, but if the portly gentleman with the red face and straw hat who was so interesting while talking to him about himself at the fair had taken a little more notice of him, he would have made his week's expenses at the fair.

This may also be said about a well-known lady who was speaking to Mr. Cook and who said she only wished she could catch him as he needed the money bad. Well, when this music lady reads this she may be a little wiser, as it all happened in front of Veller Bros' exhibit.

Look out for Mr. Cook at the following places today, and see if you can catch him. I would remember the qualifications, as soon as you see him simply show your White Swan Washing Powder coupon and say: "You are Mr. Cook, the mysterious White Swan Washing Powder man," and if you are right he will at once acknowledge it. White Swan Washing Powder is sold at all grocers.

Mr. Cook will be at Spencer's Arcade walking in front of the front doors at 11 o'clock today. At 2:10 he will board a Willoughby car at the corner of Fort and Government streets. At 3 o'clock he will walk in front of the White Swan Washing Powder exhibit and from that time until 5:30 he will be on the grounds. He will again attend the fair grounds at 7 o'clock in the evening. The accompanying photo is one of his many sittings which should materially aid you in capturing him. Remember the $50 is yours if you catch him. A full detail of his mysterious wanderings will appear daily, but also remember he may call upon you at your home and talk to you at any hour, so be careful what you say as every word will appear in the press.

Mr. Cook challenges any person to come forward and deny what has been said. So keep close watch on Thursday morning between 10:30 and 11 he will purchase some article in Spencer's arcade and will tell all about it.

White Swan Washing Powder is the best article made for white dishes, woodwork, clothes and in fact everything. Guaranteed non-injurious.

DOCTOR ADVISED OPERATION

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Canifton, Ont.—"I had been a great sufferer for five years. One doctor told me it was ulcers of the uterus, and another told me it was a fibroid tumor. No one knows what I suffered. I would always be worse at certain periods, and never was regular, and the bearing-down pains were terrible. I was very ill in bed, and the doctor told me I would have to have an operation, and that I might die during the operation. I wrote to my sister about it and she advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Through personal experience I have found it the best medicine in the world for female troubles, for it has cured me, and I did not have to have the operation after all. The Compound also helped me while passing through Change of Life." Mrs. LETITIA BLAIR, Canifton, Ontario.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has proved to be the most successful remedy for curing the worst forms of female ills, including displacements, inflammation, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result has been worth millions to suffering women.

Religious Work

The report on religious work was read by A. T. Frampton in the absence of E. Horn, the chairman of the committee. The report showed that the year was a successful one. Street meetings were held and also helpful meetings conducted on Sunday evenings in the Grand theatre. The missionary committee did excellent work and over $100 had been subscribed to the Y. M. C. A. foreign work. The grand total of men and boys attending the Y. M. C. A. meetings held last year according to the reports presented numbered 6,100. The policy of the committee for the year would be to hold Sunday afternoon men's meetings, and as many Bible classes as teachers can be formed for, as well as conducting workers' classes and open air work. The work done by Rev. Mark Leo was worthy of especial mention.

Social Committee

E. Campbell, chairman of the social committee, submitted a brief statement which showed that the work done by this branch of the association was greatly appreciated by the members. The committee endeavored to make life more pleasant for the young men who by force of circumstances was compelled to live in a boarding house.

The instructor of the physical department of the association work, C. A. Reid presented a very encouraging statement which went to show that the members of the Y. M. C. A. had been very successful in competition in outdoor games and sports. He gave in detail the different success made by the members of this department.

R. M. Jones, secretary of the boys' department, presented a report which showed good progress in this work during the year.

The treasurer's report presented by W. Scowcroft, showed that the cash receipts for the year were $5,866.45. Salaries, printing, advertising, etc., were $5,858.16, leaving a balance of $8.29 to the credit of the association.

Directors Elected

The following were elected directors for three years: R. B. McMicking, W. E. Stancland, Geo. H. Robertson, A. B. Fraser, A. E. McNeil. One vacancy in the executive list, owing to the retirement of G. D. Christie, was filled by the appointment of W. N. Mitchell. As the nominations made were only sufficient to fill the vacancies existing the above gentlemen were declared elected by acclamation.

The following took part in the programme of the evening, Miss N. Scowcroft, solo. W. G. Findlay, solo.

SMALL FIELDS
AT FAIR RACES

Indifferent Sport on Opening
Day of Meet—Trotting Event Unpopular

A fair attendance but indifferent sport marked the opening day of the race meet held in connection with the Provincial exhibition. Only four events were down for decision, one trotting and three galloping races, and for all the interest the former aroused it might have been eliminated from the programme. The galloping races attracted very small fields. This probably was accounted for by the fact that the officials in charge of the Minoru Park meet, now in progress, used every influence they possessed to prevent the horses leaving Vancouver. The first heat of the trotting race when opened the programme proved a sorry affair. There were six entries, and owing to the anxiety of the drivers to make a quick get away, and no dragoning on the part of those in control of the starting arrangements, there were no fewer than thirteen false starts. When the animals were finally sent away, the field was strung out in hopeless fashion. Palmers Boy and Toughnut got well away. In the backstretch the former forged ahead and gradually drawing away from his field won pulling up. Toughnut running second. In the second heat, only four horses turned out. In spite of the small field there were sixteen false starts, the spectators shouting derisively at the drivers after each when the field was finally sent away. Toughnut got off last but rapidly making up ground had established a clear lead from Palmers Boy when the first half mile had been completed. Toughnut continued to draw out and coming into the straight was many lengths ahead, finishing an easy winner. Only Palmers Boy and Toughnut turned out in the third and final heat which resulted in an easy win for the latter.

Small Fields.
The first galloping race only attracted four entries, and Phillistina was made a strong favorite with Ben Stone second in demand. Keogh was up on the latter and when the barrier went up Ben Stone jumped off with a clear lead. The favorite was left several lengths, but well ridden by Yeager soon commenced to catch his field. Phillistina was traveling very fast coming round the final bend into the homestretch. In the straight Keogh on Ben Stone let out a link and won with comparative ease. Belle Kinney, a popular fancy with the public, ran third. Beaver Dam Lad and Preen were made joint favorites in the next event, a four furlong sprint. The field got away to an excellent start. Entering the straight Beaver Dam Lad and All Alone were almost abreast but the former ran out, and All Alone hugging the rails romped home an easy winner by one and a half lengths. Preen ran third. Five animals were seen out in the final event, Sink Spring and Buna sharing the confidence of the public. The confidence was justified for Buna just got home by a quarter of a length from Sink Spring, both of them being hard driven. Margaret Randolph, one of the St. James stable string ran third.

Results.
The following are the results in detail:
Gentlemen's driving race, one mile heats, 2 in 3, for trotters and pacers—First heat: 1 Palmers Boy, Sid Humber; 2, Toughnut, J. H. Brooks; 3, Baby L., C. Doelman. Time, 2:24 3-5. Second heat, 1, Toughnut, J. H. Brooks; 2, Palmers Boy, Sid Humber; 3, The Habit, E. N. Tracksell. Final heat, 1, Toughnut, J. H. Brooks; 2, Palmers Boy, Sid Humber. Time 2:37. Summary—Toughnut two wins, Palmers Boy one win. Five furlongs, all ages—1, Ben Stone, Keogh; 2, Phillistina, Yeager; 3, Belle Kinney, Gaule; also ran Ayrwater, McDonald. Time, 1:03.

Escapes by Death
TORONTO, Sept. 21.—Wm. Seay, the negro who was sentenced by the Falconbridge to 20 years' imprisonment in Kingston penitentiary for attempted murder, died yesterday. The attempted murder took place on Booth avenue in Riverdale, and the man fired two shots at his wife but did not inflict any dangerous wounds. Mrs. Seay was the daughter of a rich man in the southern states, and was apparently well educated and refined. Seay worked as a coachman for her father and she married him.

Delta's fall show was held last Friday, its strength being in the showing of cattle and horses.

LAJOIE HAS GREAT RECORD

Famous Big Leaguer Was Best
on Diamond—Not a Good Manager

CLEVELAND, Sept. 21.—The resignation of Napoleon Lajoie as manager of the Cleveland American league club has emphasized the disadvantages of a player assuming the duties of manager. The resignation was expected, and, as in many other cases, the playing manager is a failure. There is grave fear that Lajoie's wonderful stick and field work has been affected by the task of directing the Cleveland club. As a player Lajoie ranks as one of the greatest ever seen on a diamond. The most sensational of plays appear the simplest of performances at Lajoie's hands—yet as a manager Lajoie has shown that he is not there. A comparison of Lajoie's work previous to his assuming the duties of manager five years ago and his record since that time leave no doubt that it is poor policy to take a man who is distinctly a player and not a leader to act as manager. It invariably results in a double failure, and many cases might be cited to show the questionable policy of the move. Lajoie's record shows that he led the American league in batting in 1901, 1903, 1904 and 1905. In recent years, although he has been near the top, his stick work has shown a decided falling off. The record of Lajoie follows:

Special to The Evening Post.
REGINA, Sept. 21.—Alderman Cox, of Winnipeg, who is making a tour of the West inspecting the offices of the Northwest Commercial Travellers' Association, is opposed to the board of control system as adopted by Winnipeg, and advises against Western cities adopting it. In an interview here he stated that the board of control elected by the people did not secure as good men for the technical work required as did boards appointed by the Council. For Regina he advised government by a commission of three, two Shingle Mill Closes.

SNOHOMISH, Sept. 21.—The shingle mill of the Ford-Shaw Lumber Company, situated on the Pilchuck river, has been shut down for an indefinite period. The shutting down is due to the lack of timber. This mill has been running most of the time during the past year when the other mills of the city were closed. The closing of this mill leaves only the Cascade mill running in this city.
Mr. George W. Tarrant, of Vancouver, has taken a bride in the person of Miss Ethel Louise Fletcher, of New Westminster.

—AT A—
MEETING OF THE ANTI-COMBINE GROCERS

Recently held at the ANTI-COMBINE STORE at the corner of
FORT AND BROAD STREETS

COPAS & YOUNG were in attendance and the status of the consumer was discussed without the assistance of the FOREIGN SECRETARY. Grocery prices were quoted and discussed as when the Combine were in full power as in comparison with GROCERY PRICES NOW. The attention of the meeting was then called to the fact that 18 per cent had been quoted elsewhere as a fair business profit above the wholesale cost. THIS POINT then became the subject of spirited discussion, and the ANTI-COMBINE GROCERS ASKED WHY it was deemed necessary before the 1st of March, 1908 to add 100 per cent in some cases and generally from 25 to 60 PER CENT. Messrs. Copas & Young also brought it to the attention of the meeting (and which was well attended by the purchasing public) that the Combine was in sympathy with a set price being placed upon a food product BY THE MANUFACTURER. This the Anti-Combine Grocers believe to be wrong, for no matter what may be real value of the article in question the price could be inflated out of all proportion to its true worth, and such methods of Combine of price in the matter of the people's food is not for or in the best interest of the public welfare. After some further discussion the meeting adjourned, and now we ask you to support the Grocers who have put up a fight for reasonable prices, who have no so-called Specials or Bait, but ONE PRICE and a square deal every day and at any old time. That's what we preach, and that is WHAT we PRACTICE. We are not in the Combine and glad of it.

North Coast Survey

HANFORD, Sept. 21.—That the North Coast railway intends to compete with the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway for the traffic of the Hanford district is shown by the fact that a recently completed survey for the North Coast road passes through the western portion of the townsite of Hanford but a short distance from the survey of the Milwaukee road.

New Water Wheel.

NORTH YAKIMA, Sept. 21.—William Simons, of Popenish, has on exhibition here a water wheel which he claims will revolutionize irrigation work wherever it is used. It is the invention of himself and W. B. Campbell, his partner. The wheel is to be submerged in the water, the paddles being so arranged that it will be worked by the current and will generate power. It is also claimed for the wheel that it can be worked by the tide as well as by the current of a running stream. Mr. Simons is endeavoring to interest local capital. He claims that already he has many orders to be filled as soon as he begins manufacturing.

Troops to Act as Escort.

WALLA WALLA, Sept. 21.—The troops of the Fourteenth cavalry stationed at Fort Walla Walla have started overland for Spokane, where they will act as an escort to President Taft on his visit there. They were accompanied by the regimental band, also stationed here. The trip will take seven or eight days. They will also return overland.

No Room for Idle

TORONTO, Sept. 21.—Sir William White, president of the engineering section of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, is in the city on his return from the convention at Winnipeg. In the course of an interview he advocated the home government training sons of the unemployed in Canadian methods of farming in order to solve the settler problem. Canada has no room for the idle man, he said.

Laborer Bereft

CASHMERE, Sept. 21.—Fred Lugenbuhl, 43 years old, a laborer employed on the F. Seaman ranch one mile west of Cashmere, committed suicide about 11 o'clock yesterday morning by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a razor. His wife died about two years ago and his family of eight children, the oldest only 17 years of age, are scattered among different families of the neighborhood and it is thought that worry over this fact had unbalanced his mind and caused him to commit the rash act. There will be no inquest.

Fierce Forest Fires.

PHOENIX, B. C., Sept. 21.—Fierce forest fires have been raging both east and west of Phoenix all the week, and at times have come very close to the city. One fire which started south of Donoro last Sunday has covered several hundred acres, and Wednesday night threatened McIntyre's sawmill and a large amount of squared timber stored by J. Trembley. Government agents have sent gangs of men, but even yet the fire continues to spread and last night threatened the Snowshoe and Rainier mine headworks. Had it not been for the turning of the wind last night the properties would have been reached.

Drags Weary Way to Help.

NORTH YAKIMA, Sept. 21.—Harry Snively, son of Attorney J. J. Snively, had his right arm and left shoulder broken today by being thrown from a horse. Young Snively was driving some horses into a corral on his father's ranch, in the Selah, when his mount stepped into a badger hole, throwing Snively and breaking his arm. The horse then fell over on the prostrate man, breaking the shoulder. Upon regaining consciousness an hour later Snively dragged himself two miles to a ranch house. He was brought in at once to surgical care.

Tekoa Guessing.

COLFAX, Sept. 21.—Considerable speculation has been created in the last few days in Tekoa and vicinity over the appearance there of a party of railroad engineers, which has already run several preliminary surveys south from the vicinity of Latah, in Spokane county, one of them running into Tekoa and connecting with the main line of the C. M. & St. P. near the Tekoa Brewing company's plant.

Pedestrian Doctor.

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Sept. 21.—Dr. Arnold de Falaise, a French surgeon, who is encircling the globe on foot at the expense of the French government for the purpose of studying tuberculosis, and to give advice to the victims of the disease, visited the city on Saturday on his way to San Francisco. From the latter city he will walk to Seattle. Dr. de Falaise formerly was a surgeon in the French army. In 1904 he left Paris and since then has traversed all of Europe and has visited Siberia, South America, Africa and North America.

Caught "Bootlegging."

SPOKANE, Sept. 21.—Deputies from the office of the sheriff here made a raid in Toppensish Sunday night and captured one woman and four men charged with bootlegging. There was consternation in Toppensish, as one of the men, Booth Rhodes, is a Toppensish police officer and was about to go on duty when seized. Sheriff Lancaster has planned a vigorous campaign for Toppensish. Those arrested are: May Trenton, "Slim" Crowner, Joe Artzer, Bert Squires and Booth Rhodes. They were released under bonds of $1,000 each to appear in answer to the charge of selling liquor to the Indians.

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., Sept. 21.—Theodore Engleder, Jr., 18 years old, was drowned, Roy De Kay and Ray Groesbeck were badly burned and twenty-two seniors of the Mount Clemens High School, many of them girls, had a narrow escape from death when a gasoline launch, burned to the water's edge at the mouth of the Clinton river.

COLFA, Sept. 21.—According to the estimate of the necessary tax levy in Whitman county, based on the amount of taxable property, as required under the provisions of the revenue law passed by the last legislature, the levy will be almost 4 1-2 mills greater than it was last year, regardless of the fact that the assessment of the county has been raised practically $1,000,000 by County Assessor English.

GOLD IN MAIL OF PRINCESS MAY

Treasure Valued at Three-quarters of Million Dollars Brought From North

MANY PASSENGERS FROM THE YUKON

Big Nugget Found in Forty-Mile District—Contract Awarded

With 27 bags of gold sent by mail from Fairbanks for Seattle in her strong room and 200 passengers, the steamer Princess May reached port yesterday morning from Skagway and way ports of northern B. C. The shipment of gold, valued at about three-quarters of a million dollars, made quick transit from Fairbanks, being brought up river on a steamer which connected at Dawson with the steamer White Horse and close connections were made with the Princess May. Among the passengers of the steamer were Judge Dugas, formerly of Montreal, now of Dawson. He was accompanied by a nurse being convalescent from an operation performed at Dawson. Colonel Conant came from the mining city named after him in the White Horse district. R. S. Grant of the Northern Electric Light, Power and Coal company, near Dawson, came out in connection with the recent arrival of a large shipment of machinery from England via the Tahltan railway. Mr. Simpson, customs official at Junction H. R. Kelton, a United States customs inspector from Skagway, Carl Strom, a Juneau musician, and wife, and William Lord of the Naas cannery, were also among the passengers.

The wireless operator of the C. P. R. line was busy during the trip. He was in communication with many vessels and when north of Grenville channel spoke the steamer Senator, 500 miles at sea, the Nome liner having a short time before spoken the R. M. S. Empress of China, 900 miles out.

Messages from Monterey, California, were also in receipt and communication was held with the Princess Royal.

Arrivals from Dawson brought news of the finding of a big nugget in the Forty-mile district by David C. Hefley, who has arrived at Dawson. The nugget weighs 65 ounces and is worth $11,000.

News was brought from Prince Rupert that the contract has been let for extending the railroad right of way from Prince Rupert to Seal's Cove. The work is probably the nearest along the road, and will involve an expenditure of over half a million dollars. The length of the extension is three and one-half miles, and if it is double-tracked it will cost from $800,000 to $1,000,000. The work is to start immediately, and continue through the winter. It will take probably a year to complete the job. The contract is subdivided into two sections of about equal proportions. Angus Stewart gets the first half, and V. W. Smith & Co. get the outer section. News was brought from the Skeena that a knifing affray took place at Claxton cannery on Monday night of last week. A bunch of Japanese were gambling when a dispute arose. One of the party got pretty badly cut up over it, and had to be taken to Essington early Tuesday morning.

The Princess May will sail north again tonight, commencing the five-day schedule.

C. P. R. Steamers

The steamer Tees, Capt. Gillam, left last night for west coast ports with a good complement of passengers, and the steamer Queen City, Capt. Robertson, sailed for Rivers Inlet and way ports. The steamer Amur, Capt. Locke, is expected in port this morning from Queen Charlotte Islands and way ports.

CRITICISE THE STR. HARFORD

Shipping Men Wonder Why Freighter Did Not Investigate Burning Liner

That the captain of the British steamer Harford, which reached Manila on Sunday, and reported having sighted a big steamer, believed to have been the Waratah on fire, 160 miles from Durban on July 27th, has much to explain is the consensus of opinion of local shipping men. The question is asked why he did not search the locality to endeavor to rescue possible survivors who might have been afloat on wreckage—this being unexplained in the cablegram from Manila—and moreover, the question is asked why he did not report the occurrence when he reached Labuan two weeks ago. Labuan, which is in Borneo, is a cable station, and the Harford put in there with fire raging in her coal bunkers and her cargo of oil endangered on September 11th. Two days later the fire in her bunkers was extinguished and the coal was discharged. She shipped more coal at the Borneo port and proceeded to Manila where the report of the sight seen off the South African coast was made.

DEMAND FOR TONNAGE SLACKENS

Grain Shippers Not Offering Anything Over Union Rates—Chartering Is Quiet

The wheat crop of Oregon, Washington and Idaho has been estimated at 60,000,000 bushels, which will undoubtedly allow of a huge exportable surplus, says the San Francisco Commercial News in its weekly review of the charter market. Shippers, however, are not offering anything over union rates for vessels, and the demand for tonnage has slowed down considerably. For San Francisco barley loading the market is lifeless; the last fixture was reported at 25s a recharter. There is very little available tonnage at this port, but in the north there are about a dozen vessels looking for business.

Lumber chartering is quiet and rates show no change. Vessels are offering for Australia, but no demand prevails. Business with Europe and South Africa is lifeless and little doing in the direction of the Orient. British Columbia to Melbourne or Adelaide done at 35s. B. C. to Suva, Fiji, at 40s.

Coastwise rates easier, $3.25 being done Puget Sound to San Francisco, and coast ports to Guaymas done at $5. B. C. to Mexico, coal, done at private terms. Offshore rates are quoted approximately as follows: Lumber from Puget Sound to British Columbia to Sydney, 30s @ 31s 3d; to Melbourne or Adelaide, 35s; Port Pirie, 35s; to Fremantle, 37s 6d @ 49s; to Japan (steamer), 28s 5d; Callao, 38s 9d @ 40s; direct nitrate ports, 37s 6d @ 40s; Valparaiso for orders, 40s @ 42s 6d; 2s 6d less to a direct port; to South African ports, 52s 6d @ 53s 9d; to U. K. or Continent, 60s; Guaymas, 55s; Santa Rosalia, 58s; Honolulu, 55s.

Liverpool mail advices report steamers for Australia grain loading in strong request on assurance of a bumper crop. Sailors are getting up to 25s. Nitrate rates are firmer at 19s 6d to 20s 3d. Norfolk to Manila (coal) quoted at 11s 3d, and Honolulu at 13s 9d. Europe to North Pacific done at 6s; Ipswich and balance Antwerp at 8s.

ABSENCE OF LIGHT DUE TO DEATH

Hydrographic Office Reports That Lightkeeper Was Absent to Take Wife's Body to Ketchikan

When the steamer Cottage City passed the Mary Island lighthouse in Alaskan waters and noted that the light was not burning, Captain Jansen little thought when he reported the absence of the light to the hydrographic office that it was because a death had occurred at the lighthouse. The hydrographic office reports: "With reference to the notice to mariners of September 16th, in which Captain A. C. Jansen, of the steamer Cottage City reports that the Mary Island light was not burning on the night of September 6th, this office is informed by the light-house inspector that on the date mentioned the keeper was absent on leave and that the wife of the assistant keeper having died, he took the body in a row boat to Ketchikan, leaving the station without attendance on that date."

Captain C. J. O'Brien, of the steamer City of Seattle, reports that the light on Hog Rocks, Alaska, was not burning at 2:47 a.m. on September 17th, 1909. Also that for ten miles north and south of Swanson bay, Graham Reach, the channel is filled with logs and refuse from the local mill, making a dangerous obstruction to navigation.

INTERPRETATION OF SHIPPING ACT

Shipping Master Insists on Celtic Monarch Shipping Full Complement

VANCOUVER, Sept. 21.—A peculiar situation has been developed by the action of the shipping master of the port of Vancouver in refusing to clear the British ship Celtic Monarch unless she has her full complement of men as called for in her articles. One result has been that Captain Llewellyn has taken the matter up with the department of marine at Ottawa. The Celtic Monarch will finish discharging her cargo tonight, and she is to leave for Seattle tomorrow in tow of the tug Lorne.

Since she has been here a number of her seamen have deserted, and at present she has only seventeen hands. In this she is luckier than many vessels, which are often left with the officers and petty officers. When the skipper went to the Shipping office to see about his clearance he was told that he must sign on seven more men in order to bring his complement up to twenty-four, which is what his articles demand when the vessel is going to sea. What Captain Llewellyn protests is that he is asked to go to the expense of hiring seven more men when the ship is only going to tow to Seattle. The sails are not even bent, and this interpretation of the Merchant's Shipping act comes as a new one to shipping men.
